

Phil and Alyssa EuBank have been serving in ministry for nearly 20 years together since they met in college at Moody Bible Institute. Phil has an undergraduate degree in pastoral studies and preaching from Moody Bible Institute and an Advanced Masters in Divinity in preaching and biblical language from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is passionate about teaching the Bible, developing other leaders, and equipping other followers of Jesus to reach those who are close to them but far from God. Phil is currently Lead Pastor of Eastern Hills Community Church in Aurora, CO. He is excited about the opportunities and reach that the culture and technology of the Bay Area can uniquely use in spreading the Gospel and inviting people from all backgrounds to be a part of finding and following Jesus.

Alyssa loves being a stay-at-home mom and, in the current stage of life, is mainly focused on spending time with her family and building relationships with those God has placed in her life. She is passionate about creating balance in all areas of life instead of buying into hustle culture. One area this manifests itself in is helping women to have a positive relationship with their bodies, exercise, and food.

Phil and Alyssa have four kids, Graer, Maisy, Leo, and Wells, ages 13 to 3, which means the house is loud and busy, but also full of fun and making memories. During any free time, you'll find Phil listening to audiobooks or podcasts, playing Madden, riding on the Peloton or, as is usually the case, doing all three at once. Alyssa, on the other hand, is all for relaxing during free time and enjoys sitting on the couch and watching shows or reading. She also likes to bake things like bread and pasta from scratch and enjoys lifting weights. Graer would be on the computer coding, building in Minecraft, or researching whatever the current subject of interest is. He also enjoys going on hikes and geocaching. Maisy is drawing or writing a book for fun. She likes theater and singing along with her current favorite musical soundtrack. Leo would most likely be building Legos, playing with his siblings, or finding things to add to his vast and varied collections. Wells is loudly causing chaos and loves running around outside and wrestling. And Toby, the dog, is mostly eating and sleeping in the sun, also occasionally chasing after a bunny that he will never actually catch.
