

Sermon-Based Study Guide | Menlo.Church

This guide is designed to guide a group discussion around the weekend sermon. You can also use this as an individual, but we highly recommend finding a friend and inviting them to discuss with you. Menlo Church has Life Groups meeting in-person and online using these guides. We'd love to help you find a group: Click here for our group finder.

What you will find in this guide:

A discussion guide for groups and individuals. If you are using this as an individual be sure to engage with each question in a journal or simply in your mind as you prayerfully consider what you heard in the sermon and seek to discover what God is inviting you to know and do.

Sermon-Based Discussion Guide for Groups and Individuals

November 6, 2022 – Phil Eubank

A New Renaissance

Every group is different; please choose the questions that relate best to your group, and don't feel like you must get to every question.

Connect

- Where are you finding joy in life right now?
- Where has someone helped you recently? Do you have a sense of gratitude for that help?

Engage

Read Nehemiah 1:1-11

- What does it say about our relationship with God?
- What is Nehemiah asking of God?
- What can we learn about prayer from this passage?
- What does this passage teach us about relating to each other?

Apply

- What is your current context of life? (Family, work, communities, etc.)
- How do you sense God calling you to be a sign of his love into your current contexts?
- What is a way that you can spend some time this week focusing on God? Push away from the hustle and distraction, so that you hear from God about where you are to partner in the work of the kingdom.

Prayer

Spend time sharing prayer requests and praying for each person that shares.

End your time by praying for our church and leadership as we enter this new season of transition.

Going Deeper
